Welcome To Lumberton, North Carolina

Location, Location, Location!

Ideally located on Interstate 95, Lumberton is known as the halfway point between New York and Florida. Just South of Lumberton's city limits at Exit 13, I-74, another major interstate, intersects I-95.

Our hotels and restaurants, conveniently located along the I-95 corridor, make traveling easy for the visitors. Take any of our four exits – 17, 19, 20, or 22 – and you will have your choice of over 1500 hotel rooms and suites. NC BBQ, local flavor, seafood, fine dining, Chinese, Mexican, Japanese, and fast food are all available for your enjoyment.

Spend the night with us and wake up to history, culture, and fun. Hike and bike on the Riverwalk near Historic Downtown as you enjoy the beauty of the Lumber River, listed as a National Wild and Scenic River and voted one of North Carolina's Top Ten Natural Wonders. The natural setting of Lumberton contributes to its charm almost as much as the people.

Lumberton was designated the first Certified Retirement Community in NC. We offer all the assets that attract retirees – moderate climate, affordable housing, excellent medical care, natural beauty, entertainment, historic and cultural attractions, recreation, and nearness to the beach, mountains and great golf.

When you stop here, you're halfway there!
